PHANTOM OF THE GARDEN

We love this outdoor dining chair's elegant lines, which create the illusion of draped fabric. The chair makes a bold statement in bright red, and would work wonders inside the home as well.

Moulded-polyethylene Opera CHAIR, $499, Hausier Company Stores, hausierstores.com.

slim line

We're always looking to see the next innovation from vacuum aficionados at Dyson. This spring, the company brings us the slimmest, most powerful cordless vacuum to ever hit the market. Perfect for small spaces, the lightweight clean freak has a detachable wand and it's powered by an Energy Star-rated battery charger.

Dyson DC35 Digital Slim Cordless VACUUM, $350, Bed, Bath & Beyond, bedbathandbeyond.com.

TURNING JAPANESE

THE BLOSSOMS COLLECTION BY ITALIAN ARTIST NADIA PIGNATONE IS INFLUENCED BY HER BACKGROUND IN GRAPHIC DESIGN COMBINED WITH HER PASSION FOR FORMING PORCELAIN. THE WHEEL-THROWN PIECES ARE DECORATED WITH GRAPHIC CUTOUTS OF RARE SILK-AND-COTTON VINTAGE KIMONOS.

Blossom 16 VASE, $570, Provide, providehome.com.

in fashion

Belgian-American fashion designer Diane von Furstenberg may be best known for her iconic wrap dresses, but she's finally adapted her bold, signature patterns for the home, launching a line of bed linens as well as her first collection of tableware.

Diane von Furstenberg Brushstroke SOUP BOWL, $25, The Bay, thebay.com.

Diane von Furstenberg BED LINENS, from $80, The Bay, thebay.com.
